

North American M A R T Y R S C a t h o l i c S c h o o l

As you may have discovered, I am out this week. I'm in sunny Florida! I wrote this before I left, but the forecast in Tallahassee looks like it's in the 70s and 80s. I'm there for a retreat and really looking forward to it. Two of my favorite books I've read in the last few years are Be Healed by Bob Schucht and Loved As I Am by Sr. Mariam James Heidland. Bob Schuchts and Sr. Miriam are actually giving the retreat and I could not be more thrilled! I am going to be disconnected completely and hopefully uniting in a deep way with our Lord. It's a huge sacrifice to be gone this week. I'm missing the dinner honoring teachers who have employment anniversaries this year, the diocesan institute with great professional development, a work day, three days with your children and GIFT. This is a huge sacrifice, but I know that I need to be closer to Jesus and this is one way to do that. You are all in my prayers and I hope the week is going smoothly. More importantly, I look forward to returning to be with you all next week. God bless you and you're in my prayers from sunny Florida. Sr. Janelle

Martyrs Night Out at McDonalds.

All Souls Day

As a school, we would be honored to pray for your deceased loved ones for All Souls Day. Please write down the names of any deceased loved ones you wish for us to pray for and send them to school with your child. Each classroom will add these names on to a scroll and we will recognize them on Monday, November 4th, since All Souls Day is on a Saturday this year. The scroll will be on display on the altar during the month of November.

A special shout out to Mrs.
Bohnenstingl and her 1st grade class in leading the school in our latest diaper drive for Catholic Social Services. Mrs. Bohnenstingl saw there were families in need and we are so grateful for her thoughtfulness and leading us all in this project.

WAY TO GO!!

North American Martyrs Feast Day

✦ The Feast of the North American Martyrs is Saturday, Oct 19th. We plan to celebrate the Martyrs at all the Masses this weekend.

✦ You are invited to a potluck in the Parish Hall on Saturday night following Mass from 7-9 p.m. Please bring a main dish and a side dish. Plates, silverware, napkins and some juice/ tea will be provided. You can bring your own drinks. Join with other Martyrs parishioners celebrating our Feast Day.

✦ Also, Sunday after Masses we will have coffee and donuts in the Parish Hall.
