We have WONDERFUL teachers here at North American Martyrs and they deserve to know how they are doing. I have been visiting classes to do formal observations of the teachers. I'm looking for higher order thinking by the students and I'm looking at the teachers' relationships with your students. There is one piece of the puzzle that is missing: I can't sit down and interview every child in the school. I understand that you are not in the classroom and sometimes questions on the parent evaluations can be hard to fill out, but please return them. They help me talk to the teachers, but in a sense, they give the kids a chance to give feedback to the teachers as well. They sit in that classroom about 7 hours a day with the teacher. Some of them only have wonderful things to tell you as they are in preschool or kindergarten. We can all remember how wonderful those teachers were for us. As things get harder negativity can creep in. Remember that and fill out the evaluation in a fair manner. Send us a written report if you don't feel comfortable with the rating system. I just want your feedback. I usually don't share things directly with the teachers unless I think it's a big enough concern and it is completely anonymous if you want it to be. You can always write your name on it for me to see and ask me not to share your name with the teacher. You may have noticed it was sent by postal mail with a stamp, which isn't cheap, so please take a moment to help us out. We value your thoughts and opinions. Don't be afraid to leave things blank, but give us a comment and let us know how we are doing. Parent Evaluations are due Tuesday, March 15.

Thank you and God Bless, Sr. Janelle
