A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

As Ash Wednesday quickly approaches (February 22nd), now would be the time to start meditating on what a good Lenten practice would be. Is there some habit or practice that just seems to burden you? Something that does not recharge you is a great place to start. For example, sometimes the endless scrolling of phone usage just does not leave people feeling refreshed. In fact, most people report feeling more behind and more overwhelmed. When I taught Juniors. I would challenge them to remove everything off their phone except texting and calling. While only a handful would do it, each and every year they kept saying, "Father ... I feel so much less stress!" Start meditating on a habit that seems to leave you more trapped and try limiting it this Lent. Start slow if you need to and ramp it up a little each week of Lent.

Then there's a positive thing you can do in Lent. Pick up a new habit to fill the time that you now have. Pick something that you remember recharges you: walks outside, reading, board games with the family or friends. Or try something new! Sitting in silence reflecting on your interior life, weight lifting ... whatever. Start thinking about it so that on Ash Wednesday you know exactly what you're going to. Ask our Lord in prayer to help you discern the beautiful and healing practices of prayer, fasting, and alms giving.

~In Christ

Fr. Nathan Hall
