A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

As we have our first Sunday of Lent it's great to look at what the purpose of a "penitential season." Ask the questions, why are we doing hard things like fasting, prayer, and giving alms? Ultimately, we are doing them to draw close to God, but we can only do that if we obtain two things from our Lenten practices: perspective and freedom. Perspective on what I've added to my life that I think I need in order to be happy. Freedom from things I've placed my happiness upon that aren't going to satisfy me in the long run. Prayer, fasting, and giving alms really challenge me for the purposes of getting these two things. If you find that you are struggling this Lent, then remember to focus on the goals! Let's pray that by Easter Sunday, we do have better perspective on life and a freedom from the things just weigh us down in the long run. God bless you all this Lent!

~In Christ

ADORATION CHAPEL

North American Martyrs

Adoration Chapel Renovations

Thanks to the generosity of our volunteers (Barb and Dan Schepers, Jim Jensen, Mary Ann Classen and others), first phase of renovations have been made to our Adoration Chapel at North American Martyrs.

Beautiful stain glass windows have been added, depicting the parents of Mary and Joseph, the walls have been painted a softer and calming color, and special thanks to Gene Krienert for his excellent woodworking skills in creating a handmade bookcase for the front entry of the chapel. We welcome all to stop by, view the changes and spend time with our Lord.

In coming months we anticipate a few more renovations, such as new furniture, carpet and curtains. We pray that this next phase of the adoration chapel renovation continues to elevate the praying experience for all those who come to the chapel.
