Dear North American Martyrs Family,
As we begin our Summer Season there are so many wonderful things happening!

First, we're going to celebrate Corpus Christi on Sunday, June 11th at the 9:30am Mass. The main idea was to involve the children in our procession and that's mostly the 9:30am Mass. Here are the things we are considering:

1. The route will be much shorter in order to accommodate children and to make sure the procession is completed before the 11am Mass.
2. There will be decorated altars which is coordinated by our Stewardship Committee.
3. This might be more of a tradition from country parishes, but the kids were always invited to bring and throw real flower petals on the route to show where our Lord has been. We'll try it out and learn if this is something that elevates the procession or even works. Hopefully see you there!

Second, later this week we welcome Rev. Mr. Augustine Reimers (Deacon Reimers) and a seminarian Brad Moss. Our parish is their summer assignment to learn, pray, and encounter our Lord. One note: So many people love supporting with food/treats. But just one note that Deacon Reimers cannot have gluten.

Lastly, as we say goodbye to Fr. Wahlmeier, we're going to have a send-off celebration for him and right now it's scheduled Sunday, June 11th at 5pm in the parish hall! Busy day. Celebrate Corpus Christi and then a thanksgiving for Fr. Wahlmeier! Come thank and support him as he begins his next assignment in his priesthood.

In Christ, Fr. Hall
