A Note from our Pastor...

When I came to this parish and worked with different families, I came to discover some adults that wanted to enter the Catholic Church for the first time or reconnect after time away. The result was a desire for their children of various ages to also come into the Church and to receive the Sacraments. Last year, I came up with an idea to have (what Fr. Kovar aptly named this year) a "Mass of Initiation."

At this Mass, we celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation. Last year, we had 11 children of various ages from both CCD and our school. This year, we celebrated with 21 children with a total of 17 baptisms! Praise the Lord! The message I preached at this Mass was one of hope. Hope that these families reconnect with Jesus through His Church, especially at every Sunday Mass. Please see the picture in this bulletin of that very happy and exciting day! If you see any of these families, please go up and say hello and welcome! We need each other to grow closer to our Lord.

The second topic I wanted to talk about is the look of our church. The tradition of veiling holy statues and images happens during the time of Lent that was known as "Passiontide." There are many reasons. One is to help us concentrate on the great essentials of Christ's work of Redemption in the liturgies that take place. Two, it could reference John 8:46-59. There were discussions between Jesus and the Jewish authorities which ended in a frustrated attempt to stone Him, so Jesus could not move about as freely.

This is the first year we're placing a veil on the crucifix of Jesus. While the original plan was to have a bracket, it needs to be developed more for next year. So, this is the current set-up led by our facilities manager Cesar Amaya. I know I was struck by the immensity of the change. Most of my holy hours involve looking upon that crucifix. I felt a sense of loss, which really does coincide with what the disciples felt during the first Good Friday. I hope it enhances your prayer this Lenten Season.

Our Holy Week Liturgies: Thursday -Mass of the Lord's Supper celebrates the Last Supper with the Lord's reposition in our Parish hall. The sanctuary is then stripped of all decoration. Friday we have Stations of the Cross at 3 p.m. and the celebration of the Lord's Passion at 7 p.m. This involves veneration of the cross. Easter Vigil at 8 p.m., the Church's most sacred Mass all year. Normal Mass times for Easter Sunday during the day.

In Christ,
