A Note from our Pastor...

In Christ,

Today we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. I encourage you to look up the beautiful story of how this devotion came about in our Church. It is the Lord's mercy which we celebrate this day.

Today, we also celebrate First Communion! At 2 p.m., our First Communicants who have studied our Lord and the teaching of the Eucharist approach to receive Him for the first time. We even get to have a celebration of a baptism during this Mass too! Praise the Lord!

This Thursday, we have our Confirmation Mass with Bishop Conley. This Sacrament enlivens those old enough to start being witnesses in the world. In short, it's a connection to the Holy Spirit to ask for help being a missionary in this world. Every Baptized person is called to be on the lookout for those moments when it is time to share Jesus, His great love for us, and His way of life. This takes great courage, which is why Jesus set up the Sacrament of Confirmation to give us the channel to receive all the help we need.

Also, if you're a Catholic or know Catholics who feel far from the Church and don't know how to change that, we're beginning a group that will meet (most likely after Sunday Masses). Stay tuned for more information or call the front office if you would definitely like to come.

In Christ,

~Fr. Hall
