A Note from our Pastor...

God bless you all!

This last week was a week of Sacraments!

Last Sunday, we had First Communion. I gave the meditation that we are body, mind, and soul. When we starve one, the other two suffer. When the body is starved, your mind/emotions would be distracted, or you might feel down or angry. When the body is starved, it's hard to focus on an interior conversation with God. But the same goes spiritually! When our soul is starving, our mind/emotions experience more anxiety and fear about the future, or there is a dissatisfaction with life that we just can't pinpoint. When our soul is starving, our body craves temptations that are a temporary fix, but leave us worse off in the long run. The remedy really is the Eucharist. Not just receiving, but studying/thinking/meditating on what we are consuming in the Eucharist. Seek out Catholic talks, articles, videos, or podcasts to help!

Last Thursday, we had Confirmation. Now these young ones are old enough to talk about Jesus to the world. Confirmation equips them with more graces of the Holy Spirit as they now know enough to be a source of information about God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The gifts they have available to them are wisdom, knowledge, counsel, fear of the Lord, fortitude, understanding, and piety (ref. 1 Cor. 12). Pray for these new Confirmandi, but also, who is your Confirmation saint? Do you remember? Maybe look up and reconnect with them. Discover something new about your saint, because you might be surprised how much they can help you today.

In Christ,
~Fr. Hall
