A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR...

Hello all!

Thank you everyone for being a part of our Homily Series these last 5 weeks. Fr. O'Shea-Creal's homily will finalize the series by focusing on the last part of RIM: Mission. Once we have a Relationship with Jesus, He will help us experience our true Identity. The last component is that once we are rooted in who we are, we are called to help ourselves, others, and the world in our specific Mission.

To understand how our parish assists people in Mission we are having two things: First, the Knights of Columbus will talk about their wonderful positive work and ask men of our parish to be a part of that mission. Second, the following weekend (Oct. 26th/27th) is our Ministry Fair. If you remember this from last year, it's a way to see all the small groups who accomplish such great things. And never fear, donuts, coffee, and treats will be provided both weekends!

Overall, we're just marking a new beginning. Our goal is to receive and accompany each person to get them to Jesus, regardless of whether they feel close or far to Him at this time. We're already seeing people experience this and are coming back to the Church that Jesus founded 2,000 years ago. Keep checking out and encouraging others to see our online outreaches, our bulletin, and flyers. Our next part will be coming in Advent. God bless you all!

In Christ,
~Fr. Hall

ANNOUNCEMENTS

LDCCW, Sunday, October 27.

A message from Judy Weston, President of the Lincoln Diocesan Council of Catholic Women: "In these ever-evolving times, it's essential to pause and thank the unwavering dedication of our parish's women—especially this Sunday, which we proudly celebrate as LDCCW Sunday! Every woman in our community is a vital member of the Altar Society/Council of Catholic Women, and their contributions are nothing short of remarkable. Whether they are serving at fundraisers or offering heartfelt support through funeral meals, these incredible women embody compassion and service. They are pillars of Spirituality, Service, and Leadership, tirelessly working to uplift our community. So, let's take a moment today to express our gratitude to the women in the pews who pray for us all and make our parish a brighter place!"

Thank you to all the ladies of our parish! We are truly blessed with faithful and multi-talented women that serve our parish. God bless you!

LDCCW PRO-LIFE DIAPER DRIVE

The Lincoln Diocesan Council of Catholic Women (LDCCW) is sponsoring the 15th Annual October Pro-Life Diaper Drive, collecting diapers throughout the month of October in each of the Lincoln Diocesan parishes. The LDCCW goal is to collect 100,000 diapers. Diaper sizes 5 and 6 are most needed. Your assistance is greatly appreciated. Thank you to those that have already donated.

MARCH FOR LIFE

Each year the Diocese of Lincoln participates in standing up for the right to life. This year, the diocese will be taking a group of 30 student leaders to the March for Life in Washington DC. Those students selected to attend will also help coordinate a day long conference at the Walk for Life weekend in Lincoln on February 1st. Please have applications in by October 15th. Contact the Diocesan Youth Ministry Office with any questions at 402-473-0625.
