A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR...

Hello North American Martyrs!
I've been very edified by the number of people who have come up and thanked the priests for the direction our parish is going. The priests have put in a lot of prayer, discernment, and effort into our homilies, and we thank all of you for listening.

But if that preaching resonates with you ... I'm here to say that there's more. If you find that the preaching is starting to stir something in you, we're offering ways to connect with Jesus more than just the seven to 10-minute homilies. For example, our parish retreat called "John 8:12" from February 28th-March 2nd, is a way to experience Jesus in a whole new way.

This retreat is given by parishioners who are on the same exact journey that you are. Their testimonies, insights, and experiences can spark something new. They aren't "perfect" or "better." They're seeking Jesus and want to walk with you in your search too. The priests will be a part of it, but only insofar as minor speaking roles and sacramental service.

I say even if you just feel "on the fence," go anyway. You'll be safe and supported. Or maybe that feeling is a call to invite someone else as well. Registration is on the flyers or here in the bulletin or we can connect you through the front office. Registration ends February 24th. Please know of my prayers for you all! God bless!

In Christ,
~Fr. Hall
