A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR...

Hello Martyrs Family,

As you read this, we're one week away from Palm Sunday. This is our Lord's entrance into Jerusalem. He knew the suffering and death He was about to endure, but He entered Jerusalem anyway. We mark this special day with a longer Gospel that involves multiple readers and your participation as well. I always recommend people to enter into the scene as best as they can in their mind. To picture the people of history, the scene, the tension, and our Lord. Prepare your hearts and minds for next week. Sink into this liturgy and use your imagination to place yourself as this important moment in history.

On a practical level, the Communion Rail will be installed on March 26th. While we won't be using it during Palm Sunday, we will be using it for the first time on Holy Thursday. This is the day we celebrate and remember the First Mass that ever took place at the Last Supper. More help and instructions to follow to help use this new part of the Church to receive our Lord in the Eucharist.

Lastly, today (March 22nd), is our re-scheduled Confirmation. The weather was very dangerous on February 19th and we re-scheduled Confirmation for this day at 1pm. This Sacrament is usually reserved for the bishop, but he can delegate it to his priests. In addition, this is the day we're also welcoming those under the age of 17 to receive Sacraments in cases where they did not receive them at usual timelines. We're thankful for their parents and families, and they are returning to the Church and are receiving the Sacraments of Jesus Christ. Please pray for all those receiving Sacraments!

In Christ,
Fr. Nathan Hall
