A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR...

Happy Palm Sunday everyone!

I wrote last week about really entering into the longer Gospel with your hearts and minds. To imagine the scenes, the people from history, and the tensions as this event took place. That can really help make the next parts of this liturgical season truly become impactful.

This week officially begins Holy Week. Each of the liturgies that mark each one of the events that are so crucial to our Faith.

1. The Mass of the Lord's supper, Thursday at 7pm. This is the time we celebrate the first ordination of the first ever Catholic priests AND the celebration of the first Catholic Mass ever by Jesus Himself. We celebrate the washing of feet and after the Mass, we repose our Lord in the parish hall to signify the agony in the garden. Can you come be with Him for one hour as the Scriptures relate?
2. Then on Friday, Stations of the Cross at 3pm and the Passion of our Lord at 7pm. This is the one day a year that there is no Catholic Mass celebrated in the entire world. The death of our Lord take precedence. This liturgy is where we venerate the cross (to venerate the cross this is traditionally done with a bow, genuflecting, a touch, and/or a kiss). There is Communion, but only from the Mass the night before.
3. Lastly, the Easter Vigil at 8:00pm on Saturday. If you have never been, I highly recommend. This liturgy has so much depth to it and is so unique compared to any other liturgy in the Church. The first part of Mass is in complete darkness as we listen to the Word. Then, when we get readings from the New Testament, the lights come full on. We also have those coming into the Church receive their Sacraments. We hope to see you there!

In Christ,
Fr. Nathan Hall

Happy Easter

Peace lilies and ferns may be ordered in memory of someone dear to your heart. Each plant is available for a donation of $20. This opportunity is sponsored by the Parish Council of Catholic Women. If you wish to participate, please place your donation along with this completed form in the collection basket or bring it to the Parish office. Thank you for helping us honor and remember loved ones in such a beautiful way this Easter season.

If you have made a donation and would like to take a plant home, they will be available for pickup after April 20th.

SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL NEWS

We are pleased to share that Phyllis Kool was recently honored with the Top Hat Award by the Lincoln Diocese Council in recognition of her outstanding service and leadership as our parish conference president. Her tireless dedication, compassionate heart, and Christ-like example continue to bless our community and those in need.

We also joyfully recognize this year's parish honorees, Elmer and Jane Wemhoff, for their many years of faithful service as Vincentians and spiritual directors. Their dedication behind the scenes—responding to calls for help, supporting parish events, and serving wherever needed—has made a lasting impact on our ministry.

We are grateful for their generous hearts and commitment to serving others.
