A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR...

Dear Parish Family,
 A HUGE thank you for all who made the JPPII national Healing the Whole Person retreat a success. We had around 40+ volunteers (mostly from our parish) who made this all possible! They truly welcomed the 825+ participants that came each day. While we had a lot of Nebraskans, we sure did have people from all over the US, Canada, and I met one guy from Ireland. Tom Kathe said we had around 400 able to go to Confession with the (around) 30+ priests able to rotate in and out over the weekend.

Personal Note: This has been a great couple months. I was honored to be given the faculties to perform the Rite of Confirmation for our parish kids. The week after that, Holy Week, where we had maybe the largest Easter Celebration that Martyrs has ever had with 29 adults coming into the Faith. The week after that, we had First Communion. The week after that, we had this wonderful JPPII retreat. This weekend, a documentary about Our Lady of La Vang with Bishop Conley visiting.

While this is great ... in all vulnerability, I'm a bit exhausted. It will take me a while to get through all the emails and scheduling appointments with people. If you know someone who is having trouble getting a hold of me, please apologize on my behalf. I'm working to catch up as best as I can. With May, wedding season is coupled with graduation season. So, please help comfort people best you can and maybe point them to some of our Diocesan support systems while I attempt to get to them. Thank you in advance!

Lastly, we're starting back up with supporting the Pius X campaign! I was so edified that 137 families were able to raise around $1,000,000 of our $2,000,000 goal! Again, if we reach that total goal, then our parish receives HALF back so we can continue our mission of bringing Christ to the World and future generations!

In Christ,
 ~Fr. Hall
