A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR...

Dear North American Martyrs,

As May continues, many schools are wrapping up for the year. Congrats to all the students! I truly hope both students and teachers are all able to rest and have a good balanced summer! In fact, that might be some advice from me. As a priest, I see how many families get so exhausted with extra activities. I know there's a pressure to do so many good things; however, I hope you feel empowered to say "no" to some stuff.

There is a goodness to being "bored" or having a light day with not much to do. I know growing up, we did have some events and I would work construction with my dad here and there, but summer is still a good time for those under 18 to recover a bit. Anyway, not forcing anyone to do anything, I just want you feel ok with saying "no" while others might pressure kids and families into doing more and more.

Thank you to all who participated in the Catholic May Day of Giving! We were able to raise $15,061 of the $30,000 goal. Thank you so much for all that support which 100% all comes to us! We'll try to continue all the wonderful activities, especially with Youth Ministry to which this is our main focus with May Day of Giving! Again, thank you!

In Christ,
~Fr. Hall
