A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR...

Hello Martyrs Parishioners!

I hope the beginning of June has been good for you! As we enter the summer months, I pray that you will have a balanced summer. Just know that it is ok to discern and say "no" to things that might be good, in order to really help your family rest, connect, and recover. Sometimes you have to give up a good thing in order to receive a great thing.

This summer we have two seminarians with us! Tom Rajewski is a Lincoln Seminarian that has been assigned to our parish. Tom will give a short introduction of himself before all the masses this weekend. Next, we actually have a seminarian from the Grand Island diocese too! His name is Caleb Marks. His diocese had an original plan that did not work out, so I'm going to put together something that might include more of being around with our parish. Please welcome them both!

Reminder: The Catholic Church has discerned a different method of seminarian formation. This means that there were no transitional deacons (those seminarians on their way to priesthood) that were ordained in May. Instead, their ordination will happen in December. Then, they spend six months in a parish. We might be a part of that! So, please pray for the future priests.

Lastly, it is June. The culture celebrates Pride Month. This can be a confusing time for Catholics. Because of my experience in serving Catholics and Christians who have same-sex desires and gender discordance as they learn and follow the way of life that Jesus gave in His Church, the diocese asked I give another presentation this year: June 7th at 3pm at John XXIII center. We'll answer anonymous questions, talk about what the Church actually teaches, and give general guidance. I also ask you be at peace. There is joy in the Good News.

In Christ,
~Fr. Hall
