A NOTE FROM PAROCHIAL VICOR...

Dear Martyrs Family,

“Life with Christ is a wonderful adventure”
-St. John Paul II

I want to take a moment to update you on my wonderful adventure with Jesus that will happen soon.

This July for a couple weeks, I will be leading 13 college students on a mission trip to the Philippines through the Fellowship of Catholic University Students (FOCUS). There, we will receive the opportunities to work with two religious orders, the Sisters of the Incarnate Word and the Christian Brothers. We will join them on their mission to be the hands and feet of Christ as he extends his love to the poor and the orphan.

God has always been close to the broken hearted. God reaffirms that He is the defender of the helpless. The Apostle St. James exhorts us “Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he has promised to those who love him?” This encouragement from St. James has given rise to a theology of the “poverty of soul” that has inspired countless saints through the centuries, like St. Teresa of Calcutta and St. Francis of Assisi.

God has put into my own heart a great love and admiration for this ministry of mission. I’ve been blessed to serve with the Sisters of Charity in Gallup, Denver, and Chicago, as well as Christ in the City in Denver and Philadelphia. And it seems that every time I go and serve the poor, Christ is the one who serves me through them. That He, in His mercy, is teaching me something true and good about His own love for me, as poor as I am. That He does not will for me to become independent or self-sufficient as that would separate me from Him. But He delights that I am needy, that I am incomplete, in essence, that I am a poor man. And the Lord is closest to the poor, those who surrender everything to Him.

So, please keep me and these missionaries in your prayers throughout July. You can join me on mission through interceding for us at Mass!

Know that I am excited to return and to tell you about the wonderous things God has done and will do in the Philippines.

In Christ, through Mary
Fr. Wahlmeier

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WEDDING VENDORS

We are still looking for photographers, florists, videographers, musicians, and more, to promote on our wedding packets. Wedding packets are handed out to all wedding couples at NAM and are a great way to advertise your business. Plus, it is free advertisement! Contact the Parish office for more details.

GENTLE REMINDER ABOUT KNEELERS

We kindly ask parishioners to please treat the kneelers with care and use them only as intended for prayer. Many have been damaged from being stepped and jumped on, which causes the legs to break and leads to costly repairs. Thank you for helping us care for our church and preserve it for everyone who worships here.

Maternity Home

Helping women facing an under-supported or unexpected pregnancy.

Families Helping Families.

Defending Life with Love!

Mater Filius Lincoln is a nonprofit Catholic Lay Association of the Faithful that assists women of all backgrounds facing an unexpected or under-supported pregnancy, who are saying yes to Life.

At no cost to mothers, our maternity home provides safe housing and assistance with life essentials. Mater Filius Lincoln journeys with women as they begin their path to independence.

Mater Filius Lincoln will begin by renting a totally renovated home from Catholic Social Services of Southern Nebraska. We hope to open our doors in 2026.

Mater Filius Lincoln will operate primarily with volunteer staff. We need financial support, volunteers, and many prayers.

"It is my hope and prayer that Mater Filius Lincoln will build upon the other wonderful pro-life ministries we have in our diocese and in our state, to grow and deepen a culture of life and a civilization of love so that, one day, abortion will not only be illegal, it will be unthinkable!"

Bishop James D. Conley

What Mater Filius offers mothers

HOUSING

We will offer a private room in a safe, tranquil home for mothers and their children. Pregnant teenagers and children under the age of five are welcome. Following the birth of her baby, a mother and her child may remain in our home for nine months. We want to keep families together!

TRANSPORTATION

We will transport mothers to appointments, jobs, schools, and other activities related to their path forward. As a mom progresses through our program, we will help her find a safe and reliable vehicle.

BASIC LIFE SKILLS

We will teach mothers how to organize and care for a home, plan and prepare meals for her family, financial management, parenting, and other basic life skills for the unique path of each mom.

EDUCATION

If education is part of her path, we will help a mother continue the education she has started, enroll in GED classes, or attend college. We will assist mothers with scholarship opportunities in the community.
