A NOTE FROM PASTOR...

Dear Martyrs Family,

Hello all!

I heard some feedback that the statics of our parish were pretty interesting! I do have one correction that shows the beautiful work that is happening. When I stated that we celebrated 350 Sacraments, I actually got the number for the second parish wrong. There was a total number that included funerals, and when removing that the second parish celebrated 244 Sacraments last year. I know not a big deal, but just getting accurate numbers.

But the important thing is this: This week is Totus Tuus!

Big thank you to all who are volunteering! Be it giving dinners or snacks or laundry baskets (yes, we need those). It really does involve a full parish to get everything going for so many participants.

The Day Program

This is for 1-8th grade. A wonderful day program that includes themes that build upon each other each day. All classes/sessions are catered to each age. Note: The program calls for Confessions at 11am and Mass at 11:30am. Just like in previous years, there will be no 8:10am Mass in order to accommodate this Mass. Feel free to join! One note: Please do not drop off children any earlier than 8:45am. They would be unsupervised.

The Evening Program

This is for 9th-12th grade. More in depth look at the Faith. Really helping the teens of the parish move from head knowledge about God into a real relationship.

Please pray for the young adult Totus Tuus leaders as they give so much of themselves this week! Please pray for them and all the participants!

In Christ,
~Fr. Hall
