A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR...

Hello NAMartyrs!

A HUGE thank you to all those who made Totus Tuus work this week. It takes a LOT of tasks here and there. Anything from housing the 8 young men and women, to providing meals (last year the organization has it where volunteers actually feed the teens too! No easy task!), to loaning laundry baskets/coolers, bringing snacks ... the list goes on and on! Once again, big thank you for those who made this possible.

We got to celebrate St. Kateri's feast day on Tuesday! She is probably the best example of going through hardship and letting it be the way to come in closer contact with God. Suffering really can be a real temptation to sin and bitterness. However, this saint chose to find God in the midst of suffering and let Him bring true comfort.

As you read this, Fr. Wahlmeier is almost done with his mission trip to the Philippines. He'll be back on Wednesday, so I know it might take time for him to acclimate again. Please continue your prayers for him and all the FOCCUS missionaries on this journey!

In Christ,
~Fr. Hall
