A Note from Our Pastor...

Hello all!

We've had quite the weather shift in such a short amount of time! Fall has fallen at the time of this writing.

Last week, we had a great collaboration with a security firm about our campus. The Education Office for the Diocese of Lincoln hired a consultant who has been through the High Schools of the diocese. Now they are moving to the Elementary/Jr. High schools. He was very supportive of our current practices and set-up. Huge thanks again to Joe Brandl for his help these last few years in completely updating our security camera system. In addition, another huge thanks to Revolution Wraps and everyone who donated at GIFT to upgrade our windows with that level of security. He made note of that and is going to share it with future schools. Another moment of gratitude for all who serve making sure we are safe and sound! On Sundays, John Seberger serves as head of security. Please continue to pray for the campus and the well being of all here!

Next, this Monday on the 21st, the Women of Martyrs asked me to present more of a theological topic. We worked together and are going to focus on Christ's saving work, known as Soteriology. All women of the parish are invited to come, receive, and ask questions. Starts at 7:30pm in the Parish Hall!

In Christ,
~Fr. Hall

World Priest Day — Celebrating Our Priests

World Priest Day, Sunday, September 27, 2026, is a special opportunity to thank and affirm the men who have devoted their lives to serving Christ and His Church through the Sacrament of Holy Orders. Let us pray for our priests, express our gratitude for their faithful service, and encourage them in their vocation. And don't forget our retired priests! They have given so much to our parishes and communities and would surely be blessed to hear from you.

To celebrate our NAM priests, Fr. Nathan Hall, Fr. Isaac Wahlmeier, and Fr. Matthew Kovar, please take a card from the Information Desk and write a few kind and encouraging words on the back of it! Completed cards can be given to TAMRA TRAN in the Parish office, placed in her drop-box, or placed in the Sunday Collection.
