A Note from Our Pastor...

Hello all!

This weekend we have a great surprise of a guest speaker at the end of every Mass! Seminarians are going to be visiting in order to help promote and answer any questions about our annual Bishop's Appeal for Vocations! Our diocese is truly blessed with so many discerning God's call. I think of my priest friend in Connecticut where their diocese had no seminarians last year and only one this year. That means they MIGHT have an ordination in 2033 ... MIGHT. In addition, all the priests who are going to retire (or who are still working in their 80's who will not be with us) means a critical problem for those who desire a parish, Sunday Mass, and the other Sacraments.

It is so hard to hear the call of God in this modern day and age. This is why I've become more and more impressed with young women who enter religious life and young men who enter seminary. It's now the most counter cultural thing to do and it takes a lot of strength and bravery. Please pray for them.

We need your help! The education of the next generation of priests is also a financial task. Every person in the diocese is asked to pray for and discern if they can financially support our future priests' education. Donate using the cards in the Narthex OR directly at: <https://www.lincolndiocese.org/vocation/bishops-appeal-for-vocations> OR with the QR code provided.

May God reward your wonderful support!

In Christ,
~Fr. Hall
