A Note from Our Pastor...

Hello North American Martyrs!

Last weekend, I was able to serve the annual retreat for Eden Invitation. This is a movement approved by the Catholic Church and Bishops to support all Catholics and Christians who experience same-sex desires and gender disconnect but still are seeking the fullness of truth that Jesus taught. I've been helping at this retreat since 2021, and I asked Bishop Conley if this is something to continue, even while assigned at our large parish. He not only gave permission but encouraged me to continue serving such a great cause. If you never have heard of Eden Invitation, I hope you get a chance to look them up and know how the Holy Spirit is guiding people to support them with these experiences. As part of the priest team, I was honored to be joined again by a Dominican and a CFR. This was also the first year another diocesan priest was able to serve! Either way, please continue to pray for this wonderful movement. So many of our brothers and sisters in Christ who feel like they are caught in the middle: between a world trying to get them to leave Jesus and parishes who might not be as receptive to them, even if they live according to Christ's teachings.

This week, we begin preaching with the question: "What is the Mass?" We're breaking the Mass down into three parts, the Liturgy of the Word, the Offertory, and the Liturgy of the Eucharist. Beginning with Liturgy of the Word, it's important to know where the facts of our Faith originate. The apostles handed on what Jesus actually said and did through both Scripture and Tradition. St. Paul states: "Stand firm and hold to the traditions which you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by letter" (2 Thess. 2:15). In addition, any time you have the desire to learn more and ask questions about the Faith, our OCIA meets every Wednesday in the Parish Hall at 6pm!

In Christ,
~Fr. Hall
